Sarah C. B. Price

DANIEL, Wasatch County — Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah C. Bethers Price, 77, life-time resident of Wasatch County, will be held Monday at 1 p.m. in the Heber Third Ward Chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Mrs. Price died in a Provo hospital Thursday after an extended illness. A native of Heber, she was born March 9, 1874, a daughter of William S. and Phoebe Hannah McMillan Bethers. At an early age, she moved with her parents to Daniels and they were among the first pioneers to settle that community. She married Charles Edward Price, Heber City, and they later received their endowments in the Salt Lake Temple. He died in 1927.

For about two years during the 1920s they lived in Provo, where Mrs. Price cared for the sick and needy families. Surviving are six of their eight sons and daughters. They are: T. William Price, California; Wasatch County; Elden Price, California; Parley and Albert Price, Daniel; Glen Price, Park City, and Mrs. Thressa Murry, Emeryville, Calif.

Also surviving are 22 grandchildren: 19 great-grandchildren; four brothers, Z. A. and Albert F. Bethers, Salt Lake City; Nathan Henry Bethers, Daniel, and A. C. Bethers, Daniel's Canyon, and a niece and nephew, Mrs. Lila Smith, Salt Lake City, and Samuel Bethers, Heber, whom she reared.

Mrs. Price worked in many auxiliary organizations of the Church, serving as secretary of the Sunday School, teacher in the Primary, and as visiting teacher and counselor and president in the Relief Society, and president of the Mutual Improvement Association.

Friends may call at the Olyn Mortuary, Heber, Saturday and at the home of a son, Parley Price, in Daniel, Sunday afternoon and evening and Monday until time of services.

Burial will be in the Charleston Cemetery.
